DEVOTED TO THE INTERESTS OF GARLAND AND THE GREAT BEAR RIVER VALLEY

Vol. 1. No. 29.

Recent Showers Prove Beneficial.

Worth $25,000 to Valley

Hay and Grain Receive Some Damage
But the Best Crop Gets a Benefit.

In a conversation with Agricultural Supt. Geo. Austin, we were informed that the recent down-pour of rain, though injurious to hay and grain crops, was a great blessing to the beet growers of the entire valley. He stated that $25,000 was a low estimate of value the rain has been to the beets. Mr. Austin just returned from a tour of the Bear River Valley and reports the prospects exceedingly bright and the beets in excellent condition. The prediction made some time ago that the Bear River Valley would produce the best crop of beets grown in the state, will be literally fulfilled. Some big surprises await the company and the farmers when the crop shall have been harvested.

Harvesting the beets commenced about Sept. 20th, ten days earlier than last season. This will enable the farmers to harvest their crop before the stormy season sets in.

He also stated that meetings would be held in the various districts soon and that every beet raiser should make it a point to be present at these meetings as matters of great importance will be discussed.

It is gratifying to note the results that have followed the breaking up of alfalfa patches and planting them in beets. 15 to 25 tons per acre is the average yield that follows. Where an alfalfa field would yield $5 per acre in hay, the same can be made to produce $25 to $50 per acre if planted in beets.

Mr. Austin leaves about Sept. 2nd for the Irrigation Congress at Boise, Ida. and expects to go loaded down with beets from this section in hopes of again winning the silver cup for the Bear River Valley.

The farmers are advised to be ready to harvest the beets when wanted and to be prepared to furnish them at a rapid rate, because when the factory begins its run, 800 tons will be required daily. Testing the beets has been keeping Mr. Austin and others quite busy the past few days.

The beets belonging to The Utah Sugar Co. will be dug and pitted and shipped to the factory some time in December, thus reserving storage room at the factory for the beets raised by the farmers. Mr. Austin stated that in Colorado about 90 percent of the beets are dug and pitted to be used when needed.

Most of the preparatory work at the factory for the big campaign is completed and all preparations are being made to start up Sept. 20th. The run this season will be a record-breaker.

Peach Day Sept. 19th.

The Peach Day celebration at Brigham City, formerly advertised for Sept. 12th, has been changed and comes off one week later, Wednesday Sept. 19th.

The B. C. Military Band and Commercial Club are going to Ogden on Labor Day to boost for the Peach Day Celebration.

The Peach Day committees are busy arranging a good program for the day. Ball games, dancing, vaudeville performances and a first class musical program constitute features of the day. Free peaches—good, big ripe ones—will be on hand for everybody. The Ladies' Auxiliary will furnish you a good 25c meal any time you feel hungry. Four hotels and all restaurants will be open all day and the Relief Society will be there with some good things to eat.

One of the committee members writes: "You need not be backward in informing your people that their every want will be gratified as we are all awake to the necessity of making a good impression in promoting the interests of Box Elder Co. in general."

Resident Manager Mosiah Evans was in Salt Lake on business Wednesday and Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Fife returned Thursday from a visit with relatives in Clarkston.

Miss Signa Lindskog of Salt Lake City was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Michaels the fore part of the week.

Regular Meeting, Town Board.

A regular meeting of the Town Board of Garland was held in the rooms of the Garland Commercial Club, Tuesday evening, Aug. 21st, at which meeting a full board was in attendance. After the regular routine of the meeting had been disposed with and sundry bills been ordered paid by the clerk, a committee consisting of H. C. Vanaunder and T. E. Secrist was appointed to look into the matter of license paying to ascertain just what kinds of business, if any, can be considered exempt from paying licenses.

The report of Trustee Jensen, who at a special meeting on July 13th was appointed a committee of one to look into the matter of the assessed valuation of all property within the corporate limits of the town, was given and Mr. Jensen advised that he was able to locate $13,857.00 which had not been included in the notice of assessment which had been received from the county clerk, and which amount said county clerk assured Mr. Jensen, the town would receive its proportion of the taxation on.

Trustees Vanaunder and Secrist were then appointed to look further into the matter of securing a gravel pit and be prepared, if possible, to report at the next regular meeting.
